

National-level Faculty Development Programme at SDM-IMD

Mysore, Apr. 7- "Innovative teaching methods and experiential learning in course delivery makes the students industry-ready," opined Dr. N.R. Parasuraman, Director, SDM-IMD, Mysore.

He was speaking after inaugurating the Faculty Development Programme (FDP) on 'Innovative Methods in Teaching HRM & OB' held on Apr. 3 and 4 at SDM-IMD campus here.

Faculty facilitators of the programme Dr. Nilanjan Sengupta and Dr. Mousumi Sengupta, Professors in the area of HRM at SDM-IMD, said "the programme aims to highlight the innovative teaching methods in the areas of Human Resource Management (HRM) and Organisational Behaviour (OB), which can be used effectively in the classroom situations to promote a holistic learning experience for the students."

The pedagogical tools of the programme included a combination of lectures, simulation exercises, practical demonstrations of administering case study discussions and role play session.

In all, 28 faculty members in the area of HRM and OB from various management institutes and Universities across the country participated.

During the valedictory on Apr. 4, Dr. H. Gayathri, Deputy Director of the Institute, distributed the certificates to the participants. Dr. M.V. Sunil, Programme Co-ordinator and faculty members of the institute were present.