

Faculty Development Program (FDP) on Innovative Teaching Methods

Date: 30 May 2023

Venue: MDP Hall

Objectives of the FDP	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To introduce the design and customization of teaching approaches suiting student needs. 2. To present use new and innovative ways of engaging students in the classroom. 3. To identify and apply new technology that will improve the ability of class projects, assignments and to presentation of ideas. 4. To share the using of new teaching strategies to make classes more lively, interactive, and interesting.
Number of Days:	1 Day Duration : 10 a.m to 5 p.m
Resource Persons:	Dr. Sunil M.V. Dr. Mousumi Sengupta
Topic Coverage / Outline	The program is intended to provide faculty with an idea about case method of teaching. It also equips participants how to handle the case discussion session and enhance the effectiveness. Designing of role play and group activities will be introduced so that teachers and students can make the best out of this teaching methodology. Hands-on session on use of Artificial Intelligence tools related to the preparation of class projects, assignments and presentation. Designing of AI Policy and evaluation metrics for the AI based assignments.
Pedagogy	Lecture method, case discussion, activity-based and hands-on session
Participants Expected Profile	Faculty Members from Undergraduate and Postgraduate Institutions
Fees	INR 1500